“Blessed are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven”
(Mt 5:3)

The Beatitudes in today's Gospel reading present a list of qualities Christ wishes to see in his followers, qualities first lived and revealed in Christ himself. Those who encounter the presence of God are often filled with awe and wonder, and at the same time become deeply aware of their own frailty. Like Peter, who cried out on recognising Jesus, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinner" (Lk 5:8), or the centurion who confessed, "Lord, I am not worthy" (Mt 8:8), such encounters reveal a spirit of humility and integrity.

Following Christ, like life itself, is an unfolding journey that continually invites us to grow. When we encounter God, we become more conscious of our shortcomings, yet it is precisely this awareness that opens us to receive God's grace. When faith is alive, it naturally draws us into worship, service, and deeper communion with others.

As we move beyond January, parish life is returning to its familiar rhythm. We warmly welcome our teachers and children as they begin the new school year, and many of our parish ministries are resuming this week. These moments offer renewed opportunities to take part in parish life and to support one another as we continue to grow in community and in faith. Walking in God's ways is a joyful journey, discovered not by standing apart or above, but by walking gently with God and with one another in humility and integrity.

This week's Scripture readings remind us that God's kingdom belongs not to the extraordinary, but to the humble. The Beatitudes bring this vision to life, proclaiming blessed those who are poor in spirit, gentle, merciful, and peacemakers. God looks with favour on the lowliness of his servants and fills the humble with his gifts.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah

Seek the Lord
all you, the humble of the earth,
who obey his commands.
Seek integrity,
seek humility:
you may perhaps find shelter
on the day of the anger of the Lord.
In your midst I will leave
a humble and lowly people,
and those who are left in Israel will seek refuge in the name of the Lord.
They will do no wrong,
will tell no lies;
and the perjured tongue will no longer
be found in their mouths.
But they will be able to graze and rest
with no one to disturb them.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:7-10. R. Mt 5:3

(R.) Happy the poor in spirit;
The kingdom of heaven is theirs!

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith forever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free. (R.)
2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind,
who raises up those who are bowed down,
the Lord, who protects the stranger
and upholds the widow and orphan. (R.)
3. It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:26-31

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Take yourselves, brothers, at the time when you were called: how many of you were wise in the ordinary sense of the word, how many were influential people,
or came from noble families?

No, it was to shame the wise that God chose what is foolish by human reckoning, and to shame what is strong that he chose what is weak by human reckoning; those whom the world thinks common and contemptible are the ones that God has chosen – those who are nothing at all to show up those who are everything. The human race has nothing to boast about to God, but you, God has made members of Christ Jesus and by God's doing he has become our wisdom, and our virtue, and our holiness, and our freedom. As scripture says: if anyone wants to boast, let him boast about the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 5:12

Alleluia, alleluia!

Rejoice and be glad;
Your reward will be great in heaven.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is
right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of
right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.'

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

REFLECTION BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA	THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
REFLECTION To follow Jesus does not mean merely that one travels with him from place to place. It means that one learns from him, that one follows his manner of life and his way of thinking. To follow Jesus means to follow his example in the way he respects himself and other people, in his use of the things of the natural world. It means that one listens to what he says, and asks for an explanation when what he says is not understood. All of this requires that the disciple be a learner, one who can learn from the life of Jesus as well as from his teaching.	Lift up your hearts. Each new hour holds new chances for new beginnings. - Maya Angelou
The first lessons that the disciples must learn are found in the beatitudes. The same lessons are placed before us, the modern-day disciples. The setting of Jesus' teaching is so serene; a mountain apart, a teacher with his disciples gathered around him, simple statements that are coupled with glorious rewards. However, the reality of the lessons is in stark contrast with this tranquil scene. These beatitudes, these blessings call for profound inner transformation.	 Ocean Eyes OPTOMETRISTS Anthony & Letitia Dowling with the friendly team you know and trust. 2 Park Lane, Ocean Grove VIC 3226 Phone: 5255 5655 - Email: info@oceaneyes.com.au Visit: www.oceaneyes.com.au
The gospel outlines the kind of person the disciple is to become; the psalm sketches the program to which the learner is called. The disciples of Jesus are not merely his followers; they also continue the work that he began. In whatever circumstance of life we find ourselves, as disciples of Jesus we work to sustain the good that is in the world and to transform whatever needs transformation.	 Nelson Property Transfer Services Geelong & Bellarine  You're in safe hands Phone: 03 5221 7411 Email: bellarine@npts.com.au
