"You are the light of the world"
(Mt 5:14)

This Sunday's readings remind us that faith is lived through action, humility, and witness. In the first reading, God calls His people to care for the hungry, the homeless, and the oppressed, promising that acts of justice will make their light shine in the darkness. In the Gospel, Jesus tells His disciples that they are the salt of the earth and the light of the world, called to let their good works lead others to praise God.

SUPPORTING CHILDREN'S LITURGY

Welcoming children into our liturgical celebrations is an important part of parish life. There is a need to strengthen Children's Liturgy during the 9:00am Sunday Mass at Our Lady Star of the Sea, Ocean Grove. At present, Children's Liturgy is offered once a month, and we appreciate our parishioners for their efforts in maintaining the roster. We are seeking the support of parents to help coordinate and build a Children's Liturgy Team. No previous experience required. This ministry supports our children during Sunday liturgy throughout the school term and helps prepare appropriate resources so they can participate meaningfully. Any parents who would consider joining this ministry are warmly invited to speak with Maureen Earls or Frank Rice (Liturgy Coordinators).

COMMUNION MINISTERS TO THE HOUSEBOUND AND NURSING HOMES – MORNING TEA

Over the past year, I have observed a growing need to support parishioners who are struggling to attend Sunday liturgy or who have moved into nursing homes. Pastoral care is especially important, in particular, the regular bringing of Holy Communion to people in their homes or in nursing homes. If you would like to become a minister and visit nursing homes or bring Communion to people at home, please speak with Fr Linh after Mass. Fr Linh would also love to catch up with all Communion Ministers, if you are available, for a morning tea on Wednesday 25 February at 10:30 am in the Parish Hall in Queenscliff.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Isaiah 58:7-10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord:

Share your bread with the hungry,
and shelter the homeless poor,
clothe the man you see to be naked
and turn not from your own kin.
Then will your light shine like the dawn
and your wound be quickly healed over.
Your integrity will go before you and the glory of the Lord behind you.
Cry, and the Lord will answer;
call, and he will say, 'I am here.'
If you do away with the yoke,
the clenched fist, the wicked word,
if you give your bread to the hungry,
and relief to the oppressed,
your light will rise in the darkness,
and your shadows become like noon.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 111:4-9. R. v.4

(R.) A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

1. He is a light in the darkness for the upright:
he is generous, merciful and just.
The good man takes pity and lends,
he conducts his affairs with honour. (R.)
2. The just man will never waver:
he will be remembered for ever.
He has no fear of evil news;
with a firm heart he trusts in the Lord. (R.)
3. With a steadfast heart he will not fear;
open-handed, he gives to the poor;
his justice stands firm for ever.
His head will be raised in glory. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 2:1-5

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

When I came to you, brothers, it was not with any show of oratory or philosophy, but simply to tell you what God had guaranteed.

During my stay with you, the only knowledge I claimed to have was about Jesus, and only about him as the crucified Christ. Far from relying on any power of my own, I came among you in great 'fear and trembling' and in my speeches and the sermons that I gave, there were none of the arguments that belong to philosophy; only a demonstration of the power of the Spirit. And I did this so that your faith should not depend on human philosophy but on the power of God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 8:12

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
the man who follows me
will have the light of life.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 5:13-16

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to his disciples: 'You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled underfoot by men.

'You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.'

REFLECTION BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA
REFLECTION We live in a world where appearances frequently matter more than they should. Contrary to this predominating tendency, Jesus teaches us that what we do flows from who and what we are. We can enlighten the world with the message of the gospel, because our lives have been transformed by that gospel and now we ourselves are light for others. We can serve others in various ways, only because we have been saved by God's grace and now we are agents of that grace in the lives of others. Our own renewal becomes the means through which God renews the world.	 Anthony & Letitia Dowling with the friendly team you know and trust. 2 Park Lane, Ocean Grove VIC 3226 Phone: 5255 5655 - Email: info@oceaneyes.com.au Visit: www.oceaneyes.com.au
This may sound grandiose, but it isn't. It is the truth about the way God works. Extraordinary things are accomplished through ordinary people. Jesus grew up as the son of a carpenter; some of the apostles were fishermen; Paul was a tentmaker; we are clerks and teachers, bus drivers and doctors, bank tellers and engineers. Like Paul we come to ministry in weakness and fear and much trembling. It is the Spirit and power of God that work the wonders, and God works them through mundane elements of life such as light and salt.	 You're in safe hands Phone: 03 5221 7411 Email: bellarine@npts.com.au
As children, many of us learned the corporal and the spiritual works of mercy. We learned that we can practise them in every walk of life. Today's readings remind us of this. We may not be asked to perform extraordinary feats, but all disciples of Jesus are called upon to do the ordinary things of life in an extraordinary way. © Dianne Bergant CSA	CHARLIE'S MAINTENANCE CO General maintenance, handyman, gardening, and cleaning.
